

Welcome to Lee Publishing!

The Holiday Season is upon us! Are you wondering what to get for that special person in your life? Do you have grandchildren, children, nieces, or nephews but no ideas of what to give to them for presents? Are you afraid of buying something on the web on your computer because you think you will never see it arrive at your doorstep and it will be flying in cyberspace forever? Do you hate the mall and dread the lines and chaos of stores?

Fear not! Lee Publishing is here. Now in it's third year, Lee Publishing features 13 children's book titles, for the age range of 4-11. Some books come with pictures and projects to color. These are timeless gifts that you can give to someone you love or buy one or many for yourself. All the books are written and illustrated by Sally O. Lee.

More information about Lee Publishing

You can find out more information about Lee Publishing on our web site: <http://www.leepublishing.net>. Best of all, all the books can be downloaded from the web site for free (these are pdf files), so that you can see the book (front to back cover) and print it. Why buy the book if you can download it for free? Since the books are not yet in bookstores, this is a way to see the book and the illustrations. Then you can decide which books you want to purchase or you can purchase all of them!
