

“ I will write the greatest
book of all time!
It will tell of all
my adventures
great and small !”

shouted Daisy.

“ I will win the Tour _de_Daisy,
climbing up
great mountains
and declining
st eep valleys!”

Daisy exclaimed.

“Daisy, those are all wonderful goals but how do you think you can achieve them if you don’t take care of the other goals that are important as well?” asked her mother.

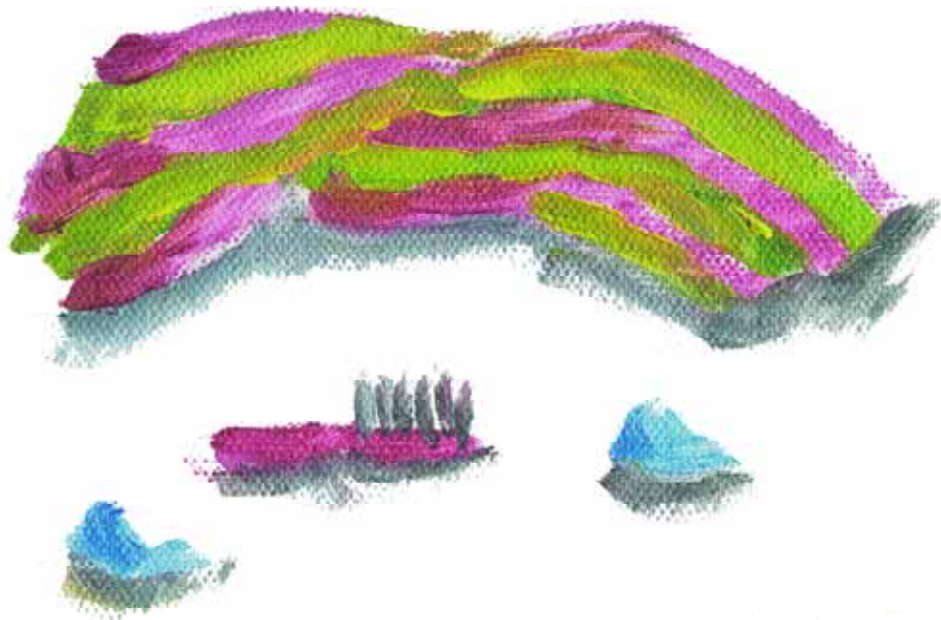

Daisy pondered..
“Can’t I just do them?”

Her mother replied, “You must learn to take care of the goals that are important
now in order to learn how to take care of the goals that are important later.
That is how people write
great books and
climb great mountains.”

“Oh.”
said Daisy.

So, from that day on, Daisy learned that it was good to clean her room and take her bath and eat her vegetables because she knew that one day this would help to make her dreams come true.

A decorative border made of a thick, textured pink ribbon. The ribbon is twisted and looped, forming a frame around the central text. At the top center, the ribbon forms a large, intricate bow. The background is a light blue with a fine, pebbled texture.
