

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Delightful Picture Book Teaches Children the ebb and flow of friendship.

The Rabbit and the Snowman by Sally Lee is a charming children's book about a rabbit and a snowman who forge a friendship that endures through the seasons.

DANVERS, Mass. – The Rabbit and the Snowman by Sally Lee is a delightfully illustrated children's story about the ebb and flow of friendship.

Lee's The Rabbit and the Snowman tells the story of a group of small children who build a snowman in a field far away in the forest. They subsequently leave and the snowman is left alone. He is not sure if he has done something wrong for them to disappear. Maybe his carrot nose is too crooked or maybe his stick arms are too skinny. He meets a small rabbit and they become fast friends. When the snowman suddenly disappears as spring arrives, the rabbit is left alone. He also wonders if he has done something wrong. Maybe his ears are too furry or his eyes are too small. The two find each other again and continue their friendship once winter returns again.

Children will love this endearing story and colorful illustrations, while parents will approve of the idea that sometimes friends come and go but that strong relationships can withstand departures and arrivals. Accomplished artist Lee has created a happy, thoughtful book through the use of watercolor and pen and ink illustrations to accompany the text that create this book. Lee also designed the font for the book which further enhances her illustrations and text. It is sure to be a classic and treasured by children of all ages.

For more information or to request a free review copy, members of the press can contact the author at sally@csail.mit.edu. The Rabbit and the Snowman is available for sale online at Amazon.com, BookSurge.com, and through additional wholesale and retail channels worldwide.

About the Author

Sally Lee has a Bachelor of Arts degree in studio art and art history from Colby College. Her work has been exhibited in several shows and in private collections, and she is the recipient of an art grant from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Her illustrations have been published in Worldlink Magazine, IEEE Magazine, and more. She lives and works in Massachusetts. She has written and illustrated nineteen books for children.